EDITOR'S NOTE

My thanks to all the faithful workers of the Annual Staff and to our advisor, Mr. Helgeson.

We have tried to capture the highlights of the 1964-65 school term.

Now that the track has been laid for this annual and all the signals clear,

"FULL STEAM AHEAD".

Roxanne Faught

In this day of diesels, electricity, and atomic energy; "Full Steam Ahead" serves to remind us that the future of the class of '65 is tied very directly to the energy put forth by the individual. The thrill of a steam locomotive reminds us that what we have today is built upon the past. We can look ahead only insofar as we stand solidly upon that past.

As you are prepared--so you will succeed. "Full Steam Ahead".

L. A. Wollam

To the seniors, a most sincere congratulations on the successful completion of this phase of your education.

To the juniors and sophomores, a wish for an enjoyable and profitable high school year to come.

May you all take the theme of this book, "Full Steam Ahead", not merely as a meaningless slogan, but rather as good sound advice to pursue.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

We began to build up steam for our trip through high school by taking first place in the Homecoming parade. We gained extra steam when we took second place in the Laurel Leaves sales. The Sadie Hawkins Dance that we gave in the spring added more steam to our boiler. To top off the year, before steaming on into our Junior year, we had a class picnic.

Monkey and Keeper?

Wishes or Dreams?

The Junior Class began laying tracks for a successful year by taking second place on the locomotive designed float which they built for the homecoming parade. Marcia Metcalf and Bill Allen headed the crew; they were crowned Laurel Leaves king and queen. The class raised funds for building their railroad by selling concessions at all the Locomotive home games. Before putting their train on the tracks and proceeding into their senior year, they honored the seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom.

CLASS HISTORY

The freshman year of the Class of 1965 began in the fall of 1961, with Chuck Cashmore being elected president. Also chosen as executives were Jackie Morrow, vice-president; Sally Olson, secretary; Carol Frank, treasurer; and Judi Hall and John Sweeney, Student Council representatives. King and queen candidates for the Laurel Leaves Dance were Betty Allan and Mike McManus. In April of 1962 the class sponsored a beatnik dance. Spring also brought the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and Paulette Stricker and Brad Wilder were chosen to represent the class. We were also introduced to the class sponsors, Mrs. Genevieve McGarry, Mr. Jack Neitz, and Mr. Ray Kramer.

The fall of 1962 saw the class entering school again, this time as sophomores. The slate of class officers included Ron Halvorson, president; Paulette Stricker, vice-president; Betty Allan, secretary; George Myers, treasurer; and Joanne Menello and Bob Allan, SAC representatives. As sophomores, the class sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and Marjorie Deitz and Tim Powers were voted Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner. Carol Hotchkiss and Tim Powers were given prizes for the best costumes. That year the sophomore float took third place in the annual Homecoming Parade.

The junior year was dominated by prom planning. The unique prom theme "Oriental Gardens" was carried out in a red, black, and gold pagoda structure; decoration chairman was Barb Ulschak. As president of the class, Linda Nottingham took charge, aided by Ken Dunham as vice-president. Other officers were Linda Frank, secretary; Carol Hotchkiss, treasurer; and Carol Frank and Barb Ulschak, SAC representatives. The Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner candidates were Jackie Morrow and Jack Keener, with Jack being crowned Li'l Abner. Tom Robertus and Ida Yaroslaski were the Laurel Leaves king and queen. As juniors, Boys' and Girls' State delegates were chosen. These delegates were Donna Hawley, Carol Hotchkiss, and Joanne Menello, with Betty Allan, Karen Koppelman, and Kathy Wruck as alternates. Bob Allen, Ken Dunham, Ron Halvorson, George Myers, and Jere Gilles were the Boys' State delegates, with Randy Lackman, Ron Robertus, Chuck Cashmore, Bruce Vadnais, and Wes Nicholas as alternates.

The senior year was led by Judi Hall, president; Kay Barsness, vice-president; Charlotte Brohaugh, secretary; Linda Frank, treasurer; and Paulette Stricker and Linda Nottingham, SAC representatives. The five girls chosen to compete for the title of Homecoming Queen of 1965 were Betty Allan, Carol Frank, Paulette Stricker, Barbara Ulschak, and Jackie Morrow; Paulette was crowned queen and Barb was chosen as princess. Snow Princess and Prince were Leslie Kucera and Mike McManus, and they reigned over the Christmas Formal. Delegates to High School Week at Bozeman were Barb Ulschak, Joanne Menello, Donna Hawley, Jere Gilles, Bob Allen, Ron Halvorson, Wes Nicholas, and Ric Porter. The Prom Queen was Jackie Morrow, chosen from a field of candidates including Barb Ulschak, Linda Nottingham, Paulette Stricker, and Betty Allan. Valedictorian of the Class of 1965 was Barbara Ulschak, and salutatorian was Ron Halvorson.
